

Editorial Board Member Certificate

We are pleased to confirm that

Stefan Bittmann,

Has performed as Editorial Board Member for the following Auctores journals since: 2024

Journal of Clinical Research and Reports

Auctores is a publisher of open access, international, academic journals. We rely on active researchers, highly qualified in their field to provide review reports and support the editorial process. Editors are eventually responsible for the quality of their journal's content. Auctores believes that editorial board member acts as a heart of the journal thus maintaining the standards and drive the journal to success.
